Effect of the Congress Being Held in Berlin.

THEIR ENEMIES DISAPPOINTED.

The Proceedings of the Meetings Have Demonstrated the Fact That the Extreme Socialists Are a Dangerous Minority.

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—The Berlin congress of the Socialists, which has been in session for several days, is drawing to a close. The extreme socialists, who have been predicting that the members of the party would fall to pieces, are disappointed.

The proceedings of the meetings have demonstrated the fact that the extreme socialists are a dangerous minority. The moderate socialists, who have been predicting that the members of the party would fall to pieces, are disappointed.

A CONVENTION.

Two New York Base Ball Clubs Consulate and Will Play Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The base ball war, at least as far as this city is concerned, is a thing of the past. The general situation looks almost as encouraging in several other cities, where conflicting interests have existed. A great deal of money has been sunk in the war, and the men who have had to pay out their money have determined to settle the fight themselves.

New York city is sure of peace, no matter whether satisfactory arrangements can be made in other cities or not. That much is already settled, and the men who have furnished the money for the two clubs this year will certainly not fight the issue for next season.

The capital stock of the new club will probably be equally distributed between the present owners of the two clubs.

The first conference between the directors of the local teams was held Tuesday, and it turned out to be one of the most harmonious base ball gatherings ever held in this city. E. B. Talcott, president of the New York League club, and John B. Day, president of the New York Base Ball club, were the only two men who were present.

At this juncture James McLean, an inmate of the house, stepped between the two men, and thrust a knife into the back of Talcott's neck. The knife entered his back and inflicted a dangerous wound. McLaughlin followed up his assault with the knife, and Mahoney received a stab in the left breast directly over the heart. The wounded men were removed to the hospital, where the physicians report Mahoney's wound dangerous, and likely to result fatally.

McLaughlin fled and has not yet been captured.

At the same time, a man named Mahoney, who was a member of the New York Base Ball club, was also wounded. He was taken to the hospital, where the physicians report his wound dangerous, and likely to result fatally.

SPAIN'S INTENTIONS.

There Can Be No Reciprocity on the Cuban Trade.

THE FAVORED NATION CLAUSE.

Several Decisions Made by the Supreme Court—Exports for September—Allen Labor Law Decision—Other Dispatches From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—In regard to newspaper dispatches from London, asserting that Spain cannot negotiate a reciprocity treaty with the United States for the Cuban trade without violating the "favored nation clause" in her existing treaties with other nations, it is said at the department of state, that this point was discussed and finally decided in 1891, when Minister Foster negotiated a reciprocity treaty on the same basis—that is now proposed, and is now revived, not by Spain it is stated, but by the commercial interests of Great Britain for obvious purposes.

The state department officials say that the United States also has the "favored nation clause" in most of her commercial treaties, but this will not encourage the government in the negotiation of reciprocity treaties or arrangements with other nations, because the department of state has uniformly held, from the time of Mr. Jefferson, as secretary of state, to Mr. Blaine, that the favored nation clause only applies where privileges are granted freely and without a consideration; but whenever a special consideration is made the condition of a favor granted or received, the favored nation clause does not apply.

This interpretation has recently been sustained by the supreme court of the United States in its opinion in the case of Bartram vs. Roberts. This case arose under the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty. It was claimed that sugar and molasses imported from the island of St. John, a colony of Denmark, should be admitted free of duty under the favored nation clause of a treaty between the United States and Denmark, because like articles were admitted from the Hawaiian islands. The supreme court rejected the claim, stating that the treaty with Denmark extends to that country, without consideration, privileges which they have conceded to the Hawaiian islands in exchange for valuable concessions.

Allen Labor Laws.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The treasury department has it very difficult to enforce the law in regard to the importation of alien laborers into the United States. A few days ago the department was informed that the Canadian Pacific had imported a number of laborers from Canada to repair a railroad, which for a distance of six miles, is through the state of Vermont, a state which has not entered Canada again. Before the treasury department could act the laborers, who are employed by the year by the Canadian Pacific railroad, had completed their work and returned to Canada.

A similar case along the line of the same railroad arose some time since where a valuable man employed by the road, and who lived in the United States died. His place was filled by a Canadian, an old roadman, familiar with the duties of the position. In this instance, however, the charge was made that he came into this country under contract, and that he had not been properly admitted into the United States.

In the matter of laborers, the treasury department did not present thinking it would be straining the law in a technical sense to do so.

INTOXICATED AND JEALOUS.

Terrible Death of a Philadelphia Man at His Residence.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—During a fracas at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence of Timothy Mahoney, No. 342 North Broad street, what may prove to be a double tragedy was enacted. At the hour named Mahoney returned to his home in an apparently intoxicated condition. His wife was awaiting his return and he at once commenced to abuse her. After words had been exchanged Mahoney picked up a pitcher and made a savage blow at his wife's head. She dodged and called for her brother, Michael McLaughlin, to protect her. McLaughlin responded and stepped with Mahoney. The infuriated husband was getting the best of McLaughlin, when the latter seized the bread-knife from the table and made a vicious lunge at his antagonist.

At this juncture James McLean, an inmate of the house, stepped between the two men, and thrust a knife into the back of Talcott's neck. The knife entered his back and inflicted a dangerous wound. McLaughlin followed up his assault with the knife, and Mahoney received a stab in the left breast directly over the heart. OHIO LEGISLATURE.

Meeting of the Special Session of the General Assembly.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Both Houses Listen to the Reading of the Document and Then Take Action Thereon—New Bills Introduced—Other Dispatches From Different Parts of the State.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15.—Both branches of the general assembly convened yesterday at 10 o'clock. A joint committee of both houses consisting of Messrs. Cronan of Hamilton, Sawyer of Jackson, and Green of Union, on the part of the senate, and Messrs. Smith of Franklin, Lavin of Huron, Hudson of Clinton, Renter of Montgomery, and Donovan of Henry, on the part of the house, called on the governor, and notified him that both branches were ready to hear what he had to say.

In a few minutes Private Secretary McKee appeared with the document, which was read in both branches before a large and listening audience. In the house it was referred to the judiciary committee by a vote 56 to 32.

In the senate the Republicans opposed Mr. McKee's document, and Mr. Cole, of Seneca, moved to amend by referring it to the senate as a committee of the whole for immediate action. This was defeated by a vote of 18 to 12. Mr. Richards, in a motion to refer to the judiciary, made a long speech against it, in which he entered into the history of the Cincinnati affair.

Mr. Richards' speech occupied three-quarters of an hour in delivery, and severely criticized the Democratic party and Governor McKee.

It was a carefully prepared document of no ordinary ability, and received close attention from his Republican colleagues. The motion to refer to the judiciary committee was, after considerable filibustering, carried by a vote of 18 yeas to 12 nays.

Mr. McKee of Butler, introduced the amendment to the board of public improvements bill. It leaves the number of members the same as now, to be chosen by the electors of the city at the general election next, ensuing after the passage of the bill.

One member, seven until April, 1901, one until April, 1902, and so on until 1897. The salary is placed at $1,000 annually, the members to devote their entire time to the duties of the board.

The present members of the board to continue in office until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Regarding the document Mr. McKee introduced a bill looking also to its abolishment.

Senator (unimpaired) offered the same bill for the abolishment of the board of public improvements.

At a Democratic caucus yesterday the committee appointed to wait on the governor, for the purpose of effecting a compromise, reported that the governor remained firm and that he will insist on the boards being abolished. It is expected that the bill will pass the senate, as the Republicans and several Democrats will support the governor.

War will then be carried to the house, where it will require two or three days to pass there.

A motion to suspend the rules and read both bills the third time brought on a brick-bat fight, but failed to pass by a strict party vote. The roll call showed four Democrats voting with the Republicans, however, which indicates that in the senate, at least, they are not united in opinion as to the best manner in which to settle the matter. After the vote was taken the senate recessed until 10 o'clock this morning. The house met at 10 o'clock and adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

At 10 o'clock the Democrats were still in session, and it is understood that a compromise is being made in regard to the bill for the abolishment of the board of public improvements.
